

PRESS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE PUBLICATION

On March 25, 2004, Glendale Heights attorney Glenn R. Gaffney, appeared and testified on behalf of the Illinois State Bar Association on Governor Blagojevich's proposed consolidation of the Department of Human Rights and the Illinois Human Rights Commission before the House State Government Administration Committee. Attached is an article from the Springfield State Journal-Register. Also attached is an outline of attorney Gaffney's testimony before the legislative body.

Attorney Glenn R. Gaffney practices in the area of employment law principally in DuPage County, Illinois and is the President of the DuPage County Bar Association (installed as President; June, 2006). Attorney Gaffney is also the past chair person of the Illinois State Bar Association's Labor and Employment Law Section Council and a member of the ISBA Federal Civil Practice Section Council.